

CERTAINTY • CONFIDENCE • HOPE

Hello, we're the Woodville Christadelphians.

As followers of Jesus Christ who love learning from God's word, we believe that everyone can have certainty, confidence and hope in the unshakeable future that is promised in the Bible.

What can you be certain of?

- That the earth was created for a purpose
- That there is a reason we are here (and it's not just to lose weight & pay bills)
- That God has a plan for the future, and He's shared what that plan is
- That God's plan does not involve the destruction of the entire human race because of Covid-19, nuclear warfare, global warming or any other form of mass destruction.
- That His plan is under control

What can you have confidence in?

- That there is evidence of God in our world today, working out the plan He has detailed
- That God invites every individual to be a part of His plan, it's not His desire than any single person misses out. He cares for us, His creation, and is willing to save us
- That God is powerfully able to accomplish everything He has promised, individually and globally!
- That God is trustworthy. The plan He has detailed WILL happen, His promises are certain and His ways are righteous. You can depend on Him. He is a safe place for you to trust, and rest.

What can you have a hope of?

- That you can be a part of God's plan
- That there are countless benefits to you individually, and to our world as a whole, to willingly engaged in being part of God's plan – both now, and in the future
- That God's plan will come to its ultimate conclusion soon
- That God provides everything you need to be a part of it
- That the uncertainty, distress, suffering and destruction of our world today will be a thing of the past, and you can be a part of turning it around!
- That the future is bright, it's real and it will last forever!
- Did we mention you can be a part of it too?

None of these points change, regardless of whatever circumstances we find ourselves in. This goes for each of us individually, for our society in general, and for the entire human race.

Every structure around us may be shaken and move; nations may come and go; powerful leaders and societies may rise and fall; individuals may grow weak and faint; families may wax and wane. And yet through it all, these things remain the same: God. His plan & purpose. His righteousness. His invitation to us to be a part of what He is accomplishing. His desire for us to be involved. His willingness to provide for our needs.

These things are sure, immovable, unchangeable, unshakeable – a firm foundation on which to build your trust and shape your eternity with certainty, confidence and hope.
